WORLD TENNIS JUNIOR TENNIS

The World Tennis Junior Tennis Competition was launched in 1991 as an International Team Competition for players aged 14 and under. Teams from across the world compete in this event for a place in the Final where 16 boys teams and 16 girls teams compete for the title. The Finals were held in Japan from 1991 until 1998 and for the first six years was sponsored by the Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corporation (NTT). The event moved to Prostejov, Czechia in 1999 and will be held there again from 2-7 August 2027.

A number of past participants have already made their mark on the WTA Tour / ATP Tour:

Amelie Mauresmo (1993 France)
Kim Clijsters (1995 – 1997 Belgium)
Justine Henin (1995 - 1996 Belgium)
